

AEF 2008 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Rydges Lakeside Canberra, London Circuit Canberra. October 11th and 12th 2008

A Climate for Change

Preparations are well underway for our Annual Conference and a line up of speakers on a range of topical subjects that will inform and educate.

Professor Bob Carter, Marine geologist James Cook University, William Kininmonth former head of Australia's National Climate Centre and a consultant to the World Meteorological organization's Commission for Climatology and Professor Don Aitken Professor, social scientist, retired Vice-Chancellor and President, University of Canberra will give presentations on climate science.

Max Rheese, wearing his other hat as Secretary of the Rivers & Red Gum Environment Alliance and Mark Poynter a member of the Institute of Foresters Australia will give a roundup of the AEF involvement and the progress to date in overturning the Victorian Environmental Assessment Council proposals for the red gum forests of the Murray River. Grassroots campaigning with the support of the community!

Other speakers on environmental water, media and politics and the global food crisis are still to be finalised.

The official launch of the Australian Climate Science Coalition will take place during the conference.

Our Gala Dinner replete with speaker will be a feature of the Saturday programme followed by a leisurely breakfast on Sunday morning, again with an informative speaker.

The AGM will be held at 9.30am on Sunday 12th followed by an Open Forum.

Attached is the Conference Registration Form, please fill out and return at your earliest convenience.
