

Mannkal-ECOMS Dinner

Mannkal's second student dinner for 2011 will be held in conjunction with the ECOMS society of UWA. Chris Berg from the Institute of Public Affairs in Melbourne will be the guest speaker. National censorship and classification, the News of the World scandal and freedom of the media will be discussed and debated in a lively atmosphere.

Date:	7th September, 2011
Time:	5.30pm for 6pm-7.30pm
Location:	The Claremont Hotel, corner of Gugerri St and Bayview Tce
RSVP:	5 th September, 2011
Cost:	Free for current university students
Enquiries:	emma@mannkal.org or 9382 1288

Chris Berg

Chris Berg is a Research Fellow with the Institute of Public Affairs. He is a regular columnist with the Sunday Age and ABC's The Drum, covering cultural, political and economic issues. His monograph, The Growth of Australia's Regulatory State, was published in 2008. He is also the editor of 100 Great Books of Liberty (with John Roskam) published by Connor Court Publishing in 2010, and The National Curriculum: A Critique (2011). For more information on Chris Berg and to read some of his articles click here.

REGISTRATION

To register please click here.

